NBYSA Parent Code of Conduct

{/niftybox}

Parents must not coach from the pitch side during matches and training.

Parents should not criticize their child on any part of the player's game, leave this to the coaches since it may cause confusion and erode the player's confidence.

Be your child's best fan and support him unconditionally. Don’t withdraw your love when he performs below his standard.

On transporting your child home, please be supporting and always focus on the positive aspects of his game.

Develop a responsibility in your son to pack his own kit, clean boots and bring along his water bottle full of water only.

Respect the facilities

Do not criticize your child's coach to your child or other parents, if you are not happy with the coach you should raise the issue with the coach.

Encourage your child to speak with the coach. If your child is having difficulties in training or games, or can't attend training etc. encourage him to speak directly to the coaches. This "responsibility taking" is a big part of becoming a mature person. By handling off the field tasks, your child is claiming ownership of all aspects of the game.

Help the young player to focus on the performance and not the result.

Winning is not as important as the performance.

Support all the players in your child's squad. Do not criticize any player.

Do not criticize the opponents, their parents, coaches or the referee.
